Please Note

To apply for the Federal Direct Stafford Loan above, please complete a Master Promissory Note (MPN) and an Entrance Counseling Session online at www.studentloans.gov. If you do not wish to borrow this loan, please write or email us (finaid@ringling.edu) within 30 days.

Parents who plan to borrow a Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan should visit www.studentloans.gov to complete a loan application and a Master Promissory Note (MPN). Please note the amount listed above is an estimate of what you may wish to consider borrowing, and is partly based on your income; you may apply for more or less.

Eligibility for the Florida Resident Access Grant is determined by the information provided on your FAFSA. We will contact you if further confirmation of your residency is needed. The amounts listed for Florida programs have been established by the Florida legislature for the 2012-2013 academic year. We will notify you if any further changes occur.

Many student employment opportunities are available. For a current listing, please visit www.collegecentral.com/ringling. This website is updated as job opportunities become available, so please check it frequently.

Your financial aid may be revised as a result of new legislation or the receipt of other pertinent information. If necessary, we will notify you in writing about any changes. Please refer to the College catalog or our website (www.ringling.edu/finaid) for a complete description of the terms and conditions for receiving financial aid and a comprehensive description of each program.

Sincerely,

Office of Financial Aid
